NEWSLETTER

November 2011

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that I present to you our first newsletter. I hope that you find the information here appealing, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us about anything related to the content of this newsletter.

LATEST NEWS

- English Chamber Orchestra and Stankov Ensemble

I am thrilled to announce our partnership with the English Chamber Orchestra for a very special concert on the 18th of December – you will find all the details on the second page of this newsletter.

- Premiere String Quartet and Stankov Ensemble

Our collaboration is featuring performances at two fantastic music venues in South London – Ripley Arts Music Centre, and Chislehurst Methodist Church which is one of the newest chamber music venues in London!

- Bridge Quartet and Stankov Ensemble

Another exciting collaboration brings us to West London, where we will be taking part in Bridge Quartet's 'West Six Sunday Series @6pm'.

- Ivo Stankov and the Bulgarian pianist living in Rome Ivan Donchev have teamed up for an ambitious project to record the complete Beethoven violin sonatas. We present two concerts on 13th and 14th of April 2012 as part of that project.

18 DECEMBER 2011 – CADOGAN HALL

LONDON FESTIVAL OF BULGARIAN CULTURE presents: BULGARIAN 'КОЛЕДА' (Christmas) – Balkan Songs and English Strings

This evening brings together the English Chamber Orchestra and the London Bulgarian Choir in a sparkling festive collaboration. Celebrated Bulgarian composer Kiril Todorov has arranged traditional Bulgarian Christmas blessings and Orthodox chants especially for this concert, where the two ensembles will perform jointly for the first time.

The concert will also feature ECO favourites such as Mozart's 29th Symphony, and two further premieres: Pancho Vladigerov's Second Suite for strings (UK Premiere), and Dobrinka Tabakova's work for soprano, violin and strings, dedicated to and performed by the Stankov Ensemble (world premiere).

"A guaranteed, stunning aural delight" (Time Out on the London Bulgarian Choir)

"An undemonstratively flawless sense of style." (The Times on the English Chamber Orchestra)
